E. A. McDaniel Brings Body of His Son to Ogden

E. A. McDaniel of Los Molines, Cal., arrived today from Tonopah with the body of his son, who died Wednesday in the Nevada mining camp, and to attend the funeral of his wife, Mr. McDaniel is postmaster at Los Molines. He was at one time connected with the Salt Lake Tribune in the capacity of Ogden correspondent and had charge of the Utah exhibit at the world's fair at Chicago in 1893.

Among those in attendance at the McDaniel funeral was Judge E. W. McDaniel of La Junta, Colo., brother of E. A. McDaniel. He is remembered by many as a former resident of Ogden in the boom days of the early nineties, when he was in the newspaper business and later studied law.

Senator Sutherland To Practice in New York

One of Senator George Sutherland's close friends predicted today that the defeated statesman would not return to Salt Lake City to resume the practice of law, but that he would probably establish himself at New York city and engage in corporation practice.

Mr. Sutherland succeeded Senator Elihu Root as president of the American Bar association. His eminence as a lawyer will enable him to form business connections that soon would bring to him enormous earnings, so say his friends.

In the senate, Mr. Sutherland always sought to gain recognition and leadership as a constitutional lawyer. In this capacity, it is said, he will almost rank with Elihu Root as a corporation lawyer.

Railway Mail Clerks Are to Be Sent to Chicago

The railway mail service in this district is soon to be reorganized, according to a rumor current in the city today. In the reorganization, Ogden is to lose 12 residents, clerks who have been running out of here, between Ogden and San Francisco.

These clerks, it is said, will be sent to Chicago and will there perform the work that has hitherto been done in the Ogden-San Francisco railway post-offices. It is not known as yet, when the changes will be made.

Evidence

The following letters were written by well-known residents of Ogden, Utah, after they had visited the Elk Basin oil fields:

From John M. Craig, 695 Twenty-third St., Ogden, Utah.
November 24, 1916.
Elk Basin Brokerage Co.,
230 Twenty-fifth St.,
Ogden, Utah.

Gentlemen: Having just returned from a visit to the Elk Basin oil fields of Wyoming and Montana, and having investigated the holdings of the Prudential Elk Basin Oil company, and the properties surrounding it, as an experienced oil man, I am pleased to advise that I found your property all that you claimed for it and in fact a great deal more.

My experience in oil has been in Beaumont, Tex.; Oklahoma, Kansas and Bakersfield, Cal., and I can truthfully say that I consider this the best oil field I have ever seen. I saw enough flowing wells to convince me that your enterprise is not a gamble, as I visited thirty flowing wells and there are many more in the Basin that I did not have the opportunity to see. The average production of these wells is approximately four hundred barrels per day each, and the price of oil at the well was $2.85 per barrel at the time I was in the field.

The drilling site of the Prudential well, after carefully looking over structural conditions, proved conclusively to me that there is no question of getting the oil, but is merely a question of going to the required depth to reach it. The average depth for good production I found is about 2,200 feet, and the Prudential well is now down to a depth of 1,950 feet with a perfect hole.

The drilling outfit which is being used by the Prudential company is by far the best outfit and rig on the field. It is modern, up to date and is being properly handled by the most expert drillers.

I did not hear of one dry hole where drilling had been carried to the required depth to reach the pay sands.

The facilities for transportation from the fields to nearby refineries is excellent, and there will be no trouble in getting the oil to a good market as it comes from the well. It gives me great pleasure to say that every statement made to me

The above letters were given to us voluntarily by these men. "Folks" of your own home town. It will pay you to investigate immediately. Prudential stock is selling at 10c per share. We do not guarantee to reserve or sell any stock at this price after Wednesday, November 29th, 1916.

regarding the Prudential Elk Basin Oil company project, by Mr. Thomas and his agents, was found, on visiting the fields to be correct in every particular.

The entire proposition looks better to me now in every way than it did before I visited the property. I consider the proposition of the Prudential Elk Basin Oil company one of the few where a small investor is given the opportunity to make good money on whatever he invests, as he is assured full protection under the "Blue Sky" laws of the state of Montana.

The company is well organized and the property the most promising I have ever seen, and I predict for the Prudential a wonderful and speedy success.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) JOHN M. CRAIG.

From N. A. Akerman, 133 Twenty-eighth St., Ogden, Utah.
Elk Basin Brokerage Co.,
230 Twenty-fifth St.,
Ogden, Utah.

Gentlemen: As an oil man of experience from the Ohio oil fields, I have just returned from the Elk Basin oil fields where I went to make an investigation of the Prudential Elk Basin Oil company's drilling lease, etc., and to pass on their possibilities of their getting a producing well.

I have been on every set of tanks, visited every well in the field, and consider it one of the greatest oil fields I have ever seen. At the Prudential well I found they have spared no means in preparing to go to a depth of 2,500 feet. It is the best equipped rig I have ever seen. They are cased down 1,900 feet, straight hole, with hole in perfect condition, and there is enough casing on the ground to complete the well.

I certainly saw enough flowing wells, 40 in number, in the basin to convince me that it is far beyond the prospect stage, and found it all and even more than was represented to me before going to the field. If anyone wants further information they can find me at 133 Twenty-eighth street, Ogden.

(Signed) N. A. AKERMAN.
